“Stories, Stories, Everywhere” at StoryCamp 2008

Storytellers and Storylovers from across the land trek to central Florida for a well-established, four-day immersion in the art of storytelling at Florida StoryCamp, March 27-30, 2008. They gather to share, listen, and be entertained by the nation's finest storytellers, and to participate in workshops, network with peers, and hone performance skills during Story Swaps and Open Mike Sessions. Florida's Youthful Voices, selected from among the state's most outstanding student tellers, will also be highlighted in concert.

Featured tellers and presenters for the 24th annual gathering include: Michael Parent, Portland, ME; Michael McCarty, Inglewood, CA, Molly Catron, Afton, TN, and Florida tellers Kuniko Yamamoto who resides in North Port, and Sandy Walker from Key West.

StoryCamp, sponsored by Florida Storytelling Association, has been a destination event in Florida since 1984. Registration is open; early registration discounts apply. Additional information and applications are available online: <http://www.flstory.org/events/storycamp/index.html>; or by telephone: 1-800-940-1972 or 386-446-4909. Florida Storytelling Association is a non-profit, 501(c)(3) Florida Corporation.
